Subject: Powertech's Technical Report for the NRC License

It turns out the Technical Report Powertech submitted to NRC for the license is too large to attach to an email.

But, this is the link to the NRC website where the Technical Report files are located, including the Appendices and Plates.

<http://pbadupws.nrc.gov/docs/ML0928/ML092870160.html>

The files for the Technical Report itself are not quite halfway down the webpage. I will send the information for the Environmental Report next.
